ABOUT THE PROGRAM

"Supply Chain Excellence" Achieving Faster, Better, and Cheaper Operations Through Lean, AI and Digital Technology in the New Economy

The modern supply chain demands agility, efficiency, and resilience powered by Lean Six Sigma and AI-driven digital technologies. Predictive analytics, digital twins, and automation now enable real-time visibility, faster decisions, and reduced costs across value networks. AI enhances forecasting accuracy, streamlines operations, and builds intelligent, self-learning ecosystems. Organizations embracing this transformation achieve 15–25% gains in efficiency, proving that the future of supply chains lies in human-tech synergy.
